

Tuross Music Festival 2011

Dear All,
The Tuross Music Festival, like Spring is getting closer!

We are more than fortunate to have two fantastic venues in the Tuross Head

Tavern and the Tuross Head Country Club to showcase the festival performers.

There is something for everyone's taste and there is no excuse not to come and catch a little or a lot of the performers coming from far and wide.

Remember admission is free!

The best little music festival on the Coast

Come along and support both the Tuross Head Country Club and the Tuross Head Tavern and many other local businesses who are supporting our great little festival that grows bigger and better every year. Many thanks and great much appreciation must be given to the following local businesses for their support of this year's festival.

So thank you to (in no particular order)

Michele Tyrrell (Chartered Accountant)

The Tuross Beach Holiday Park (be sure to check their website for special accommodation rates)

Barry and Michelle Jones (from Jada Home Maintenance Systems)

The Tuross Motel;

Tuross Head Tavern and

The Tuross Head Country Club.

Without the above businesses and your support as patrons, the festival would not be able to go ahead. Hope to see you at the festival.
